The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL fees.bjmcabd.edu.in. The page header features the B. J. Medical College logo and the text "B. J. Medical College". Below the header, there is a paragraph of text describing the college's history. A list of affiliated institutions is provided, with the "M. P. Shah Cancer Research Institute" highlighted by a red box. At the bottom of the page, there are two buttons: "Fee Payment For Student" and "Other Payments".

Ahmedabad Medical School was created in 1871 and it became affiliated with the Civil Hospital in the city of Ahmedabad. The School began its beginnings, starting with 14 students who pursued hospital assistant training. In 1879, Sir Byramjee Jeejeebhoy donated Rs.20,000/- and the school was renamed after him as B. J. Medical School. The school grew and became affiliated with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Bombay in 1946, the school obtained affiliation with Bombay University and then achieved higher status for itself to become B.J. Medical College. In 1951, The college was affiliated to Gujarat University for its undergraduate courses. The postgraduate courses were also affiliated to the Gujarat University in 1956. The Gujarat University took over the school, which today flourishes with other allied medical and dental institutions, including:

- o M & J Institute of Ophthalmology
- o M. P. Shah Cancer Research Institute
- o TB Demonstration and Training Centre
- o Institute of Kidney Diseases and Research Centre
- o U. N. Mehta Institute of Cardiology
